

ANSON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC.

“To Preserve and Educate”

The General William A. Smith House in Ansonville; called “The Oaks”.
(Circa: 1845) An example of pre-civil war architecture in Anson County.

The ACHS is a nonprofit organization devoted to providing education, cultural and recreational benefits; and preserving the rich history of Anson County. Tax Deductible ID Number: 56-6093146

Benefits of Membership:

- Quarterly newsletter with interesting historical articles relating to Anson County.
- Free admission to the Boggan-Hammond House; the Alexander Little Wing, the Ashe Covington Medical Museum, the Leavitt House displaying Tom Little Artifacts; Fulton Coleman Allen Indian Arrowhead Collection and the Wadesboro High School Museum.
- Invitation to special events including the Annual Dinner Meeting.
- Access to all family records, historic place records and historic library.

ACHS MEMBERSHIP FORM INFORMATION

Name:

Mailing Address:

City-State-Zip:

Individual $35 Please mail your tax deductible donation and this membership Family $50
information to: The Anson County Historical Society Corporate $100 206 East Wade Street
Patron $500 Wadesboro, NC 28170 Benefactor $1,000 Office: 704-694-6694 Fax: 704-694-3763
Lifetime $2,000
Other $

Visit our web page: www.ansonhistoricalsociety.org