

PRESERVE AND EDUCATE

Preserve and Educate

Anson County Historical Society, Inc.

ACHS is a nonprofit organization devoted to providing educational, cultural and recreational benefits for the citizens of Anson County and anyone interested in Anson's rich history.

Membership Application and Contribution Form

Benefits of membership:

- Quarterly newsletter in which members may place free queries
- Free admission to the Boggan-Hammond House, Alexander Little Wing, Ashe-Covington Medical Museum, The Leavitt House displaying Tom Little Artifacts, Fulton Coleman Allen Indian Arrowhead Collection and the WHS museum
- Invitation to special events
- Notice of and invitation to Annual Meeting--dinner meeting
- Reduced rates for copies of family files information
- Access to all family records, historic places records, and historic library

Special Contributions

ACHS has a number of ongoing projects which need your support

Anson County Historical Society Annual Membership Form
206 East Wade Street * Wadesboro NC 28170
(704) 694-6694 704) 694-3763 (fax)

Name _____

Address _____

City-State-Zip _____

Individual	___ $35	Corporate	___ $100
Family	___ $50	Patron	___ $500
Contributing	___ $100	Lifetime	___ $2,000
Benefactor	___ $1000
Special Contribution	$ _____	<input type="checkbox"/> Museum upkeep	<input type="checkbox"/> Landscaping
		<input type="checkbox"/> Cemeteries	<input type="checkbox"/> Operation

Total Amount Remitted $ _____ Thank You!

“A small amount for Preserving our Heritage and Historic assets. We are working for the benefit of future generations.”